

Science Presentation at NUSA.
19th March 2018.

Firbeck Academy joined other local schools to talk about and demonstrate different science activities to celebrate British Science Week 2018.

Our host was NUSA, where we were joined by a group of Year 7 students who also spoke about science at secondary school and how much they enjoyed it!

